He suggested that the holiday lights along Washington Park Boulevard be expanded in upcoming seasons to provide a destination for visitors. Mayor Elkins shared that has been discussed, and will be again soon.

Mr. Wright also noted new housing development in the Old Brooklyn neighborhood of Cleveland, and hopes that Newburgh Heights can follow suit. Mayor Elkins agreed, but confirmed that the Village cannot provide the financial incentives that Cleveland does, and we are still working to expand new housing. Note that new houses in the Village have been built in the past couple of years for the first time in over 50 years.

Reports:

Mayor:

Mayor Elkins noted a recent incident in which the housing inspector broke the rules; she has apologized and will receive discipline as prescribed by the Village's personnel policy manual. He also apologized on her behalf to the residents.

Mayor Elkins reminded the public that if they are trying to contact the Village, they must utilize an official Facebook page operated by the Village, including the pages maintained by police department and the fire department. Certain messages have been forwarded to him recently from private groups, and those were addressed. Again, the Village's Facebook page can be used to highlight issues and concerns, but it is best to call or email, or attend a council meeting. We will also be scheduling a Town Hall and Conversation event in February – stay tuned for details.

Mayor Elkins reviewed the Budget Snapshot for November, and updated council on the status of year-end requirements for the Ohio Auditor of State, and the Cuyahoga County Budget Commission.

Mayor Elkins shared certain residents' concerns regarding the Newburgh Heights Community Improvement Corporation, or CIC. He detailed the formation of the CIC, the state laws that are followed, the makeup of the CIC board, how the CIC spends funds and where funds come from, and provided amounts for each transaction in 2019 and 2020. The regularly scheduled state audit of the CIC for those years was recently released, and it was successful with no notes, findings, or citations. Congratulations to Fiscal Officer Nagorski, CIC board members, and council for their attention to this important operation.

Fiscal Officer:

Mrs. Nagorski noted that the regular bi-annual state audit of the Village is also underway, and nearly finished; we hope to have the results by year-end.

Thank you to council for the investment in that improvement to the department, as it helps them serve residents much better, and thanks to the administration for their support.

Ms. Pagsuyoin:

Thank you to council for their continued support of the housing and building department. Please keep asking questions, and sending residents to the housing department when there is an issue or concern – we can help get everything resolved.

Leaf pickup is wrapping up, as most leaves are down. The vacuum crew continues to make the rounds of the Village each week, as long as the weather holds. Prepping snow equipment for winter season.

Mr. Togliatti:

Continuing work with the owner of the bakery who intends to take over the Newburgh Social Center site. Business is expected to open in May 2022.

A few developers have been looking at the 6-unit building on East 44th; we should have movement on that project soon.

Due to the changes in the market with Covid-19 concerns, we have had new interest from fast-casual dining chains in the Harvard/East 49th property that used to house the police and fire departments. Working with the current owner on facilitating a tenant.
